I got a delivery today. It is awesome! And so thoughtful. I appreciate it so much. It made me smile through this excruciating pain. Uggg

She loved it! She told me she could tell someone who had gone through chemo packed it. Thank you so much! It was awesome!

I am recovering from stage IV ovarian cancer. I was treated at AAMC. I have received your comfort bags. Thank you. Really helped me out! Keep up the good work ! Thank you! 😊❤️

Yes ma'am, that was me! :)

THANK YOU SO MUCH!! She just opened it and was blown away, as was I! What you are doing is so amazing, you are lifting up spirits of families everywhere! Thank you again! 🥹🥹

Thanks again for all you are doing to make this easier for all of us and I'm so glad you had a great outcome!

While fighting her own breast cancer battle, Shannon enlisted the help of friends and family to provide small comfort items to her fellow cancer fighters at Anne Arundel Medical Center. This project has evolved since 2017 and she is currently awaiting the IRS's approval for non-profit status for Shannon's Comfy Chemo Care Bag Project Inc! She may be the muscle behind this project but there is absolutely no way she could make these bags of love without the help of friends, family, the community, and complete strangers!

Thank you for your consideration, support, generosity, and kindness.

God bless you!
